TICKS ALL THE RIGHT BOXES

Here is a home in the hot area of West Hobart that ticks all the right boxes. Off street parking in the 'lock- up', one car garage, sunny paved courtyard, rear deck and two living areas are just a few of the features that make this a must see property. The hard work has been done with a new bathroom and kitchen already adding to the fabulous charm and appeal of this weatherboard cottage.

The home sits behind a painted picket fence and has a garage at street level to make parking a breeze. The entrance to the property is enhanced by a beautiful sunny courtyard with large doors that open from the lounge living space. Off to one side of the courtyard under the garage is a great space for overflow storage or outdoor gardening tools with easy access over the paved outdoor room. The front garden/ court yard has raised vegetable garde
