This freestanding villa unit is one of only two on the block. Located at the rear of an internal block, this property is incredibly private and quiet, and with its elevated position captures lovely views of the city and Derwent River.

This two story, brick and tile, low maintenance villa has a single garage with remote access and great storage. The living areas are all located upstairs. The open plan lounge and dining room is spacious and has large sun and view capturing windows.

There are two spacious double bedrooms both with built in robes.
