Being situated on a slip road on the top-side of Sandy Bay Road, this wonderful home is flooded with sun and enjoys uninterrupted views of the River Derwent.

The property is stylishly presented throughout and the light-filled living and neutral dcor will appeal to many purchasers.

Rich golden Tasmanian Oak floor boards are evident throughout - particularly the entry, fabulous open plan living zone, bathroom and passage ways with the bedroom accommodation finished with quality carpets - so practicality is well covered.

The living area is the place to be, having large windows to capture the stunning outlook with direct access to a private front entertainment deck for extended living with family and friends. A delightful feature fire place adds to the character of the space and would p
