Set behind a picket fence this lovely cottage has immediate appeal with striking colours and delightful leadlight windows.

The character features continue throughout the home with polished floor boards, timber windows, picture rails and feature fire places. A neutral dcor throughout helps to create a light and spacious feel and a real sense of somewhere you could easily call "home".

The bedrooms are located to the left of the living area - the spacious master with leadlight window and feature fire place.

Both the kitchen and bathroom have been upgraded and feature splashes of contemporary colouring - the kitchen with island bench, stainless steel appliances including gas hob and cavity for a refrigerator. A large window centrally positioned between overhead cabinetry h
