BUT WAIT THERE'S STILL MORE.

If you want quality, space and options look no further. This home has been immaculately built to the highest standards on over 1300 square metres including 5Kw solar panels, natural gas connections and double-glazed windows. Incorporated on the property is a two-bedroom unit containing kitchen and bathroom that was approved as temporary accommodation (also utilising the above energy efficiencies).

With such versatility this home will suit so many buyers and as ironic as it sounds families or people looking to upsize and even downsize who may not be ready to part with years of loved belongings.

The main residence offers an elite kitchen with quality European cook ware, fridge with water and ice, caesarstone bench tops, built in coffee machine, an abundance of storage plus room for multiple helpers at dinner time. The kitchen flows seamlessly to a combined dining and lounge through to the large rear deck that flows the full length of the home. Thi
