Contemporary City Living!

Privately positioned with a verdant outlook, this architecturally designed home has been orientated to create a comfortable solar passive dwelling on the city fringe.

The intelligent floorplan maximises space and offers generously proportioned living areas with thoughtful design elements and consistency in the timeless and sophisticated dcor.

Coupled with its unrivalled location on the cusp of the CBD and West Hobart, this is a rare offering in a superb location.

The staircase reveals two light-filled double bedrooms with ample built in storage and a central bathroom. The combination of the industrial and raw natural materials of the interi
