A warm welcome plus wow factor

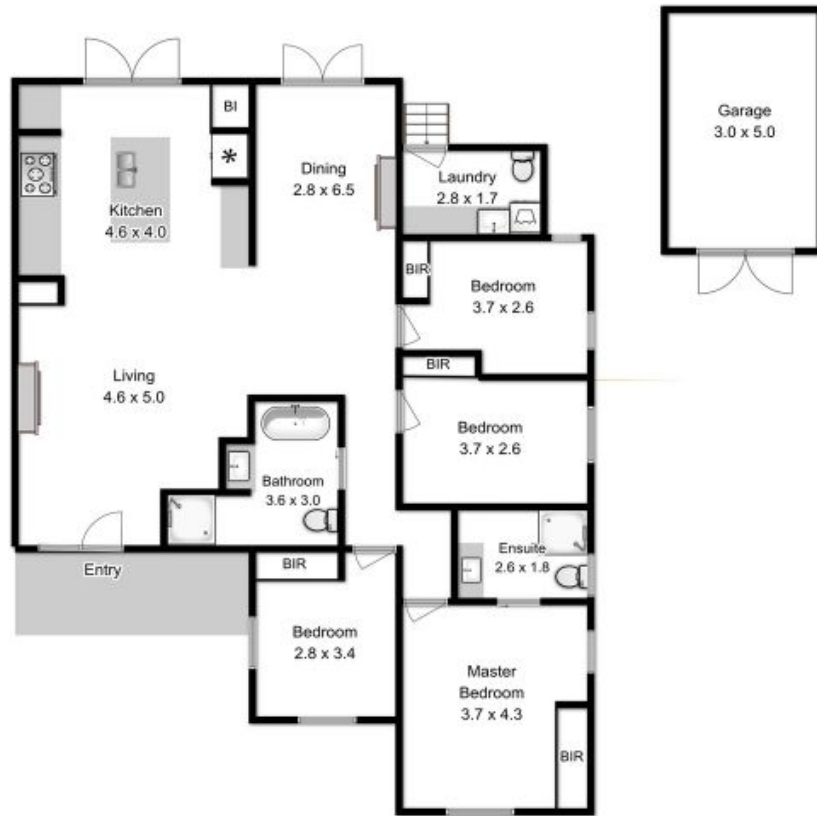

This elegant and contemporary family home has undergone extensive and thoughtful renovation in recent years, transforming the property which was built in 1952. With free flowing indoor and outdoor spaces, quality fixtures, uncompromising attention to detail and highlights that respect the original features of the home, this wonderful property in Lindisfarne has enormous wow factor'.

The immaculately presented front and rear yards are both fully fenced, offering privacy as well as freedom for kids or pets to come and go as they please. The dual driveway is perfect for a caravan or multiple vehicles, and the garage provides additional parking or stor
