3km From CBD & Waterfront

This magnificent New Town property is a beautifully preserved piece of Hobart's history, which has been transformed into a stylish and comfortable home. The thoughtful restoration has respected this grand building's history and character, whilst carefully updating it to a quality family home with all the modern luxuries.

Located in one of Hobart's most sought-after streets, this property is just a short distance from Calvary Hospital and around the corner from the prestigious Friends school, as well
