What's behind the red door?

Not your average family home, that's for sure!

Instead, an immaculately presented and comfortable property with a welcoming feel, modern touches and a lovely sunny aspect can be found here.

All this, plus gorgeous street presence and a sought-after location make this 1964 brick and tile home so appealing.

A perfect entertainer, there is an undercover deck in both the front and rear yards - creating outdoor rooms for all types of weather. These fantastic spaces create seamless indoor-outdoor flow and extend the living space on offer.

Indoors, the north facing open plan living and dining area is spacious and filled with sunlight. The comfortable and welcoming space features beautiful Tas oak floorboards, a wood
