

15a Torrens Street RICHMOND, TAS

Picturesque Historic Richmond

Located in the heart of picturesque historic Richmond, this parcel of land offers an extremely rare opportunity for those wanting to build their dream home in a highly sought-after location.

This historic postcode offers all the benefits of peaceful country living in one the state's best wine regions. Within walking distance to boutique local shops including cafes, restaurants and Tasmania's best lolly shop. There is the added benefit of an excellent local primary school at the end of the street and all only 25 minutes commute to Hobart CBD.

This opportunity won't last long, contact Warwick Page today to find out more.

"We have obtained all information in this document from sources we believe to be reliable;

Warwick Page

Director & Real Estate Agent

0474122717