Sunny, spacious home with panoramic views

You'll feel on top of the world in this unique three-bedroom home - a glorious retreat that provides magnificent views, peace and privacy from its elevated position. Situated on a quiet cul de sac, the generous block with untouched bushland nearby is still within minutes of northern suburbs amenities.

Built in 2004, the rendered block property is sturdy, spacious and warm, drawing on energy-efficient double glazing and gas heating, as well as its sunny aspect to assure your comfort throughout the year.

The home is completed with three large bedrooms which all have built-in wardrobes, a family bathroom with corner spa bath, separate toilet, and laundry facilities. Under the house is an enormous oversize garage and additional storage, as well as plenty of parking off the
